

Guest lecture on Scholarly Writing and Publishing

Saturday, 26th August 2017

A guest lecture on Scholarly Writing and Publishing was organised for the BIMTECH Faculty and research scholars on 26th August, 2017 from 2-3:30 p.m in the presence of Dean-Center for Research Studies. The lecture was delivered by Prof. (Dr.) Mahesh Kumar P. Joshi of George Mason University, USA, who is the Director of Research and Practice for Mason's Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship, as well as an associate professor of Global Strategy and Entrepreneurship at the School of Business, George Mason University.

Dr. Arunaditya Sahay, Dean- Centre for Research Studies, offered a floral welcome to the guest. It was followed by a formal introduction of the speaker by Ms. Surbhi Cheema, a research scholar. The lecture by Prof. Joshi was an edifying experience. It focused on the broad spectrum of topics ranging from the relevance of doing research to being a good teacher. It also emphasized on the importance of getting the research published for translating and transmitting the acquired knowledge. The lecture was interactive and lively and all the participants had an enriching session.

Shubhanjan Sengupta, a research associate, proposed the vote of thanks. Dr. Sahay concluded the session with words of wisdom on meticulous planning and hard work required in getting the research published. The session was concluded by delivering a small token of gratitude to Dr Joshi by Prof. Sahay.
