

Student Satisfaction Survey – PGDM Batch of 2023-25

Programme

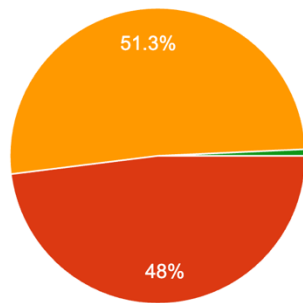

287 responses

- PGDM
- PGDM International Business
- PGDM Retail Management
- PGDM – Insurance Business

Batch:

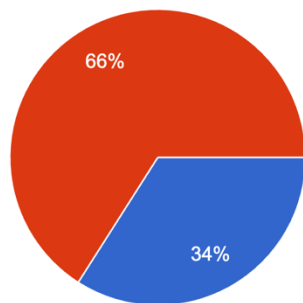

279 responses

- 2022-24
- 2023-25
- 2020-22
- 2021-23

Gender:

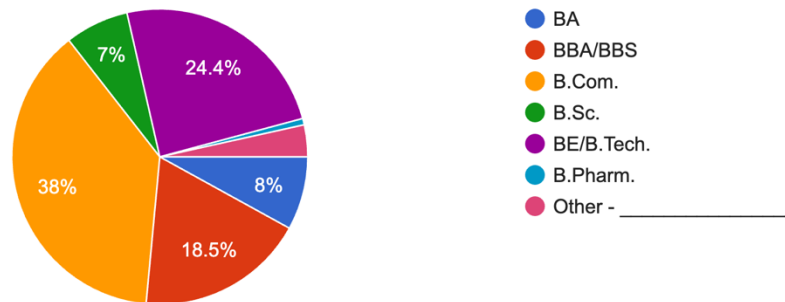

285 responses

- Female
- Male
- Other

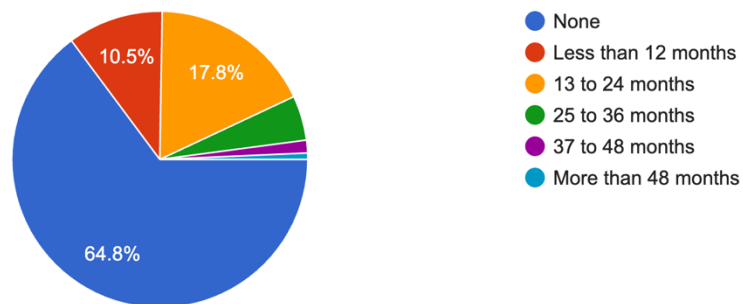

Previous degree

287 responses

Prior work experience:

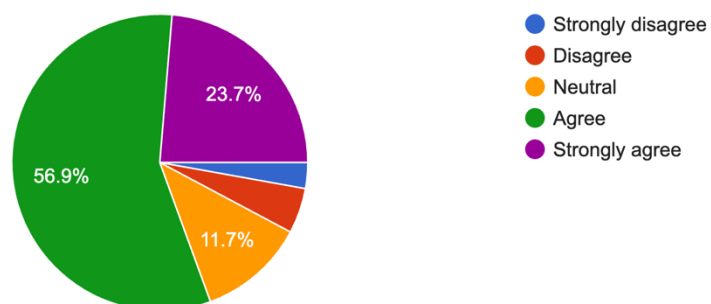

287 responses

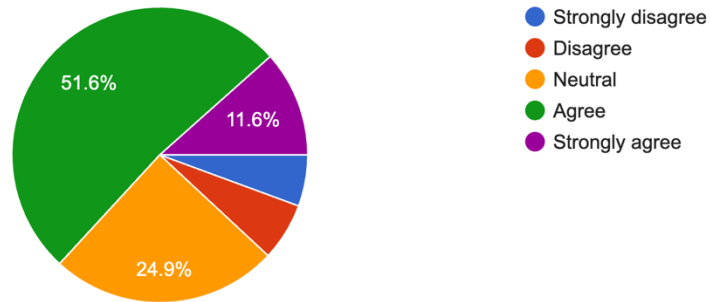

Teaching-Learning Process

Courses in the programme normally are completed within the time allotted during the trimester

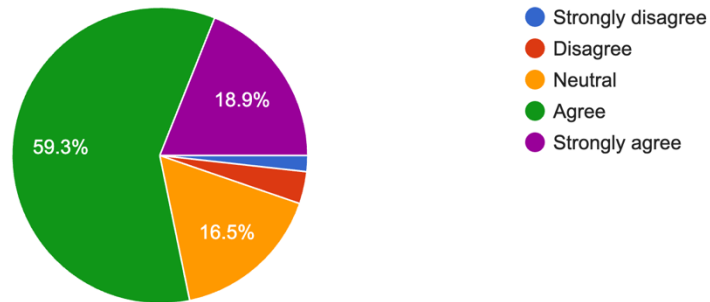

283 responses

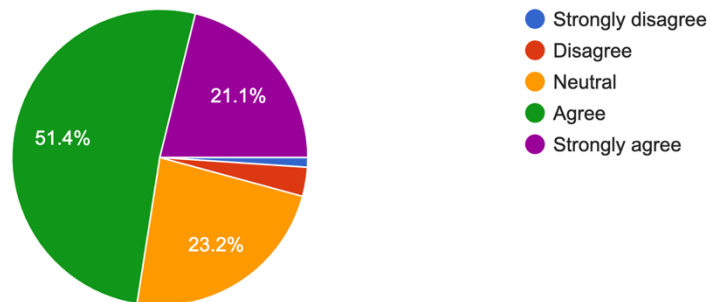

My teachers help me relate with the real world of business while teaching a course
285 responses

In general, I find my teachers to be accessible and approachable
285 responses

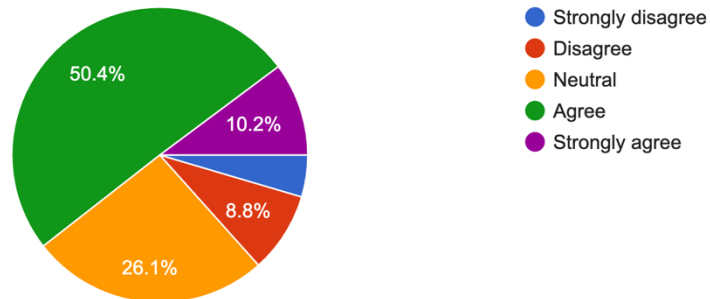

In general, I find my teachers to be competent in their subject area
284 responses

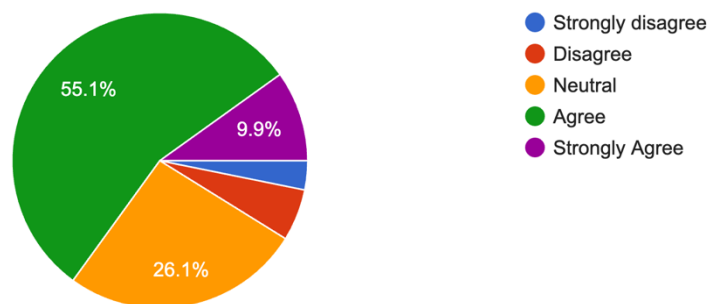

I believe that the evaluation components in a course (e.g., assignments, projects, tests, etc.) are adequate in number and support the course learning outcomes

284 responses

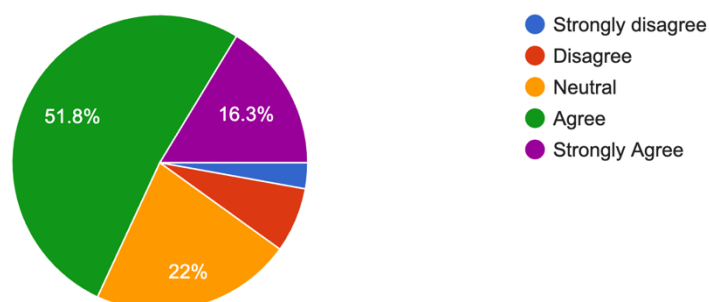

I believe that the courses I have undertaken so far in my programme are preparing me well for a successful professional career

283 responses

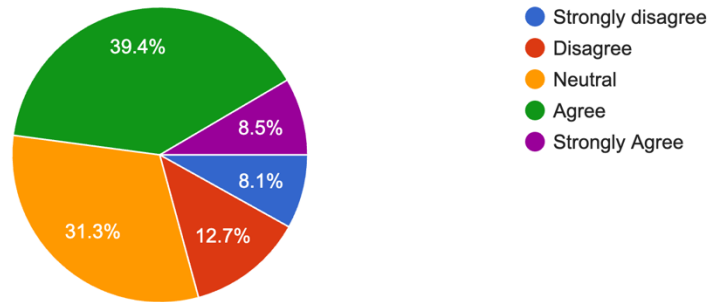

I am happy with the question paper format in the end term examinations and I believe that the questions fairly represent the course learning outcomes

282 responses

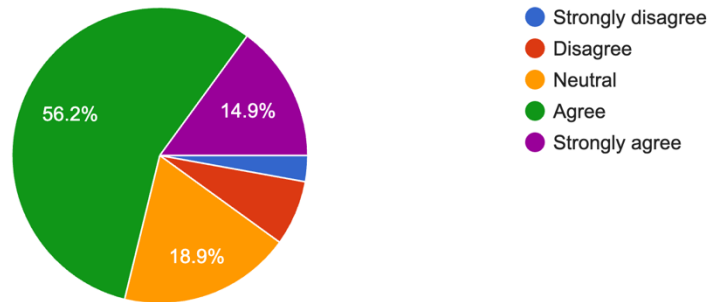

I believe that the grading in a course is fair and transparent

284 responses

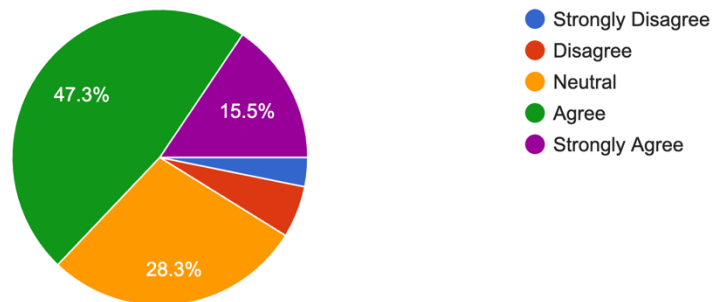

I am satisfied with the variety of functional specializations offered at Bimtech

281 responses

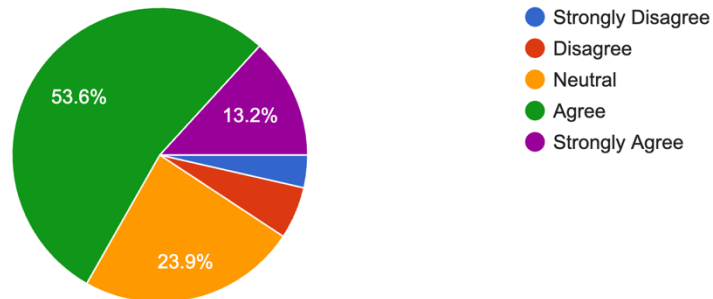

I believe that the business vertical specializations offered will give me an edge in the job market

283 responses

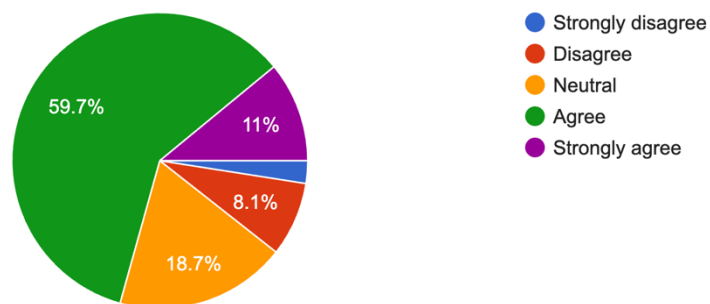

After going through the communications related courses, I am better able to communicate my thoughts and ideas to my audience, both in written and orally

280 responses

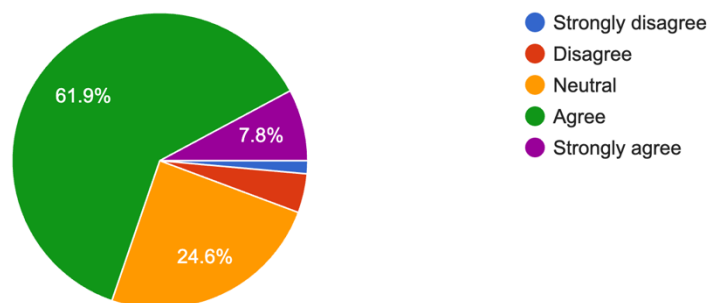

The Programme offers me adequate opportunities to collaborate and work together with different stakeholders such as my batch mates, the faculty, administration, and industry representatives

283 responses

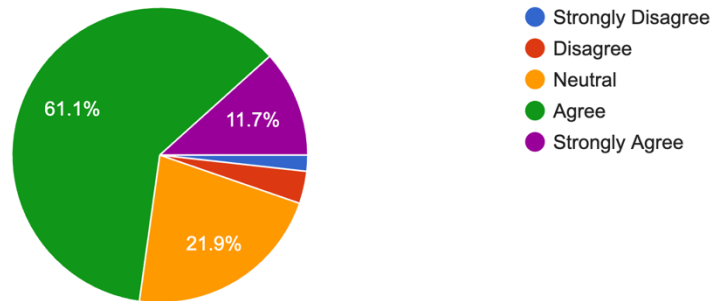

So far, courses in the Programme have helped me get better clarity about the constituents of the business environment and their impact, both local and global, than what I had before

281 responses

I believe that my experience in the Programme so far has strengthened my ability to identify, analyse and find solution to real world business related problems

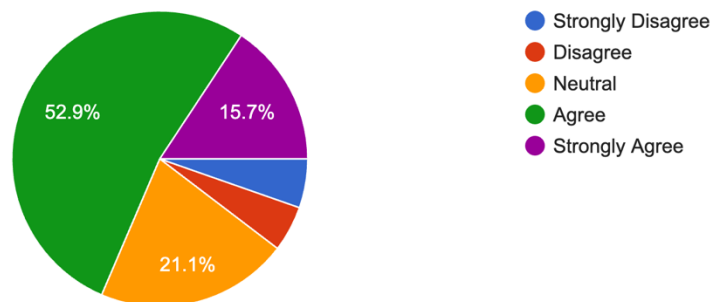

283 responses

Admissions

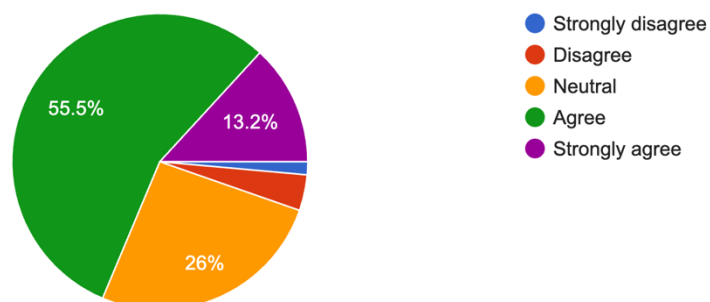

I believe that the admission process followed at Bimtech is fair and transparent

280 responses

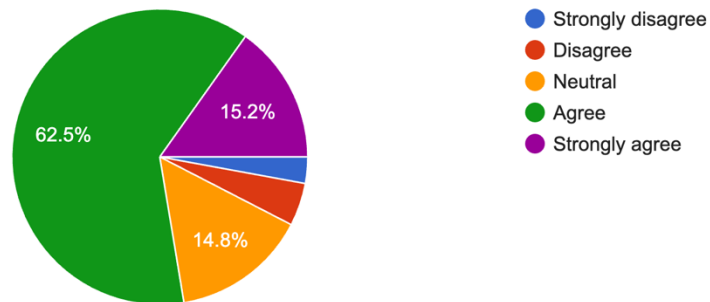

The admission process allowed me adequate opportunities to showcase my credentials, skills, talents, and personal traits

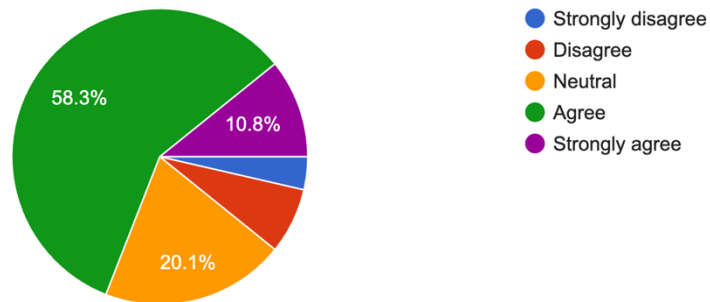

281 responses

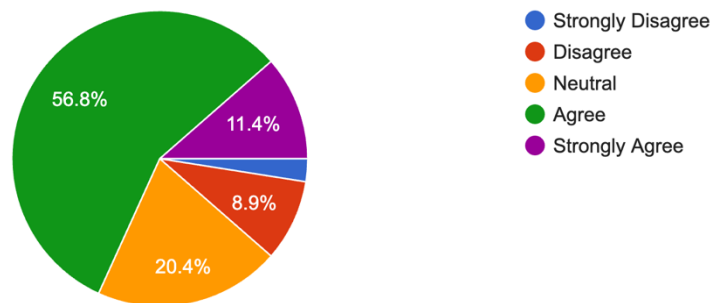

The admissions department was able to address my queries promptly and to my satisfaction
277 responses

There is adequate information available through various official channels about Bimtech and the programmes for a prospective student
278 responses

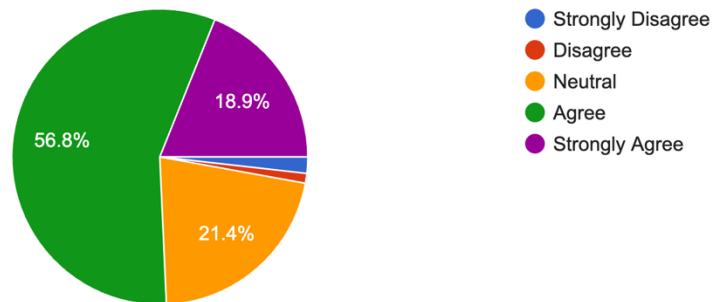

As a prospective student, I had trust on the information provided through various official Bimtech channels
280 responses

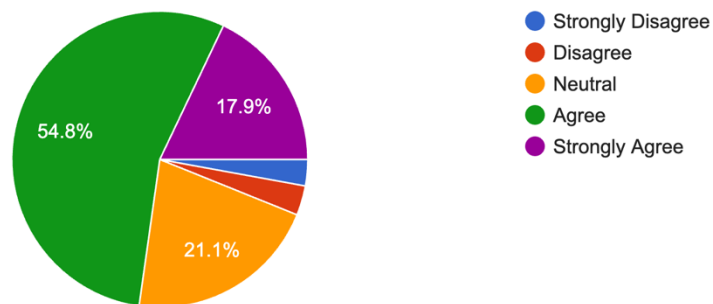

I was happy to have received an admission offer from Bimtech

280 responses

In general, I find my peers to be helpful and supportive in making my life on campus more fruitful

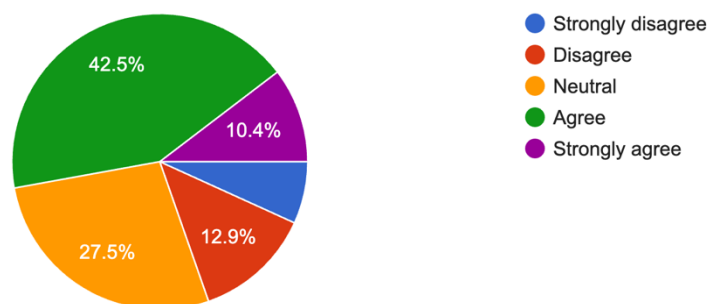

279 responses

Personality Development and Career Services

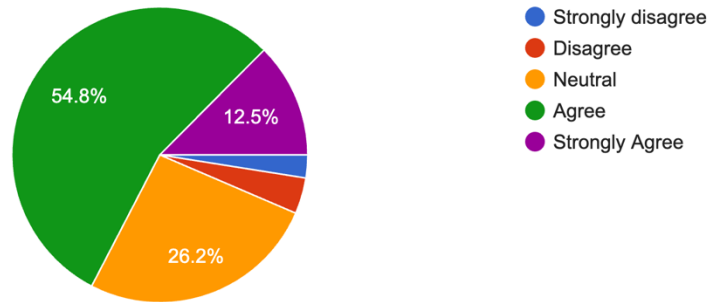

I believe that Bimtech provides adequate inputs and opportunities through various Business Communication, and other courses (e.g., LEAD) to ...eveloping my communication and leadership skills

280 responses

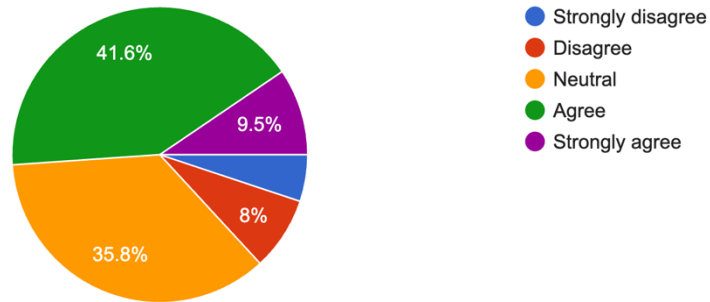

Bimtech provides opportunities for me to identify my strengths and areas of improvement

279 responses

I believe that Bimtech provides placement opportunities commensurate with my skills, knowledge, and competence (please answer with respect to final placements)

274 responses

On a scale of 1 to 10, with 1 representing "least likely" and 10 representing "most likely", based on your overall experience, how likely would you be to...round, competence, skills, and preferences as you?

278 responses

